A. M. D. D.

of Louisville, Ky., who will speak at St. James A. M. E. Zion Church, 1805 Woodland Avenue Friday evening October 23rd. Bishop Clement is one of the foremost divines and scholars of the day and it is expected that a large audience will hear him.

A GREAT PREACHER.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct.—Dr. H. H. Procter, a great power and leader throughout the south has accepted a call to the Nazarene Congregational Church, of Brooklyn, N. Y. His services begin January 1, 1920. Mayor James Key of Atlanta, has expressed his regrets at Dr. Procter's resignation.

MRS. JONES HONORED.

Omaha, Neb.—Mrs. Laurence C. Jones, representing the Piney Woods Country Life School, Braxton, Miss., was dinner guest of the Rotary Club, St. Louis City, La., at Banquet Hall, Hotel Martin. She spoke on the race question. Mrs. Jones was the first race girl to receive a diploma from the Burlington, Iowa, High School and for a number of years conducted the Art Institute there, with white and colored teachers and students. This is the first time in the history of Rotary Clubs of America that one of our women has been a guest.

PRAYER OF THE RACE (WHOM GOD MADE BLACK)

By Lucian B. Watkins.

We would be peaceful, Father,—but, when we must, Help us to thunder hard the blow that's just!

We would be prayerful: Lord, when we have prayed Let us arise courageous—unafraid!

We would be manly—proving well our worth, Then would not cringe to any god on earth!

We would be loving and forgiving, thus To love our neighbor as Thou lovest us!

We would be faithful, loyal to the Right,— No'er doubting that the Day will follow Night!

We would be all that Thou hast meant for man, Up through the ages, since the world began!

God! save us Thy heaven, where all is well!— We come slow-struggling up the Hills of Hell!

Amen! Amen!

PROMINENT HAIR CULTURISTS RETURN HOME.

The Denver Star of Denver, Colo., announces the return home of two very prominent hair culturists, Madame Elizabeth Dishman and Madame E. DeNeal the latter of whom is originator of the DeNeal Modern Method of Beauty Culture and Hair Growing, and whose progress has made a wonderful stride in the last few years. Madame Elizabeth Dishman is well known throughout the country and particularly to Kansas Cityans, having been reared in this city and returning to establish the DeNeal system here. Madame Dishman was successful in establishing the most beautiful and well equipped parlors in the city and a place which all Kansas City ladies are justly proud.

Prominent Southern "Gentleman" Arrested Found Comfortably Tucked Away in Bed With a Well Known Negro Woman.

Shawnee, Okla., Oct. 1.—The newspapers of the country have carried no story with big black headlines of the white man, who was arrested here Monday night in a suite of rooms occupied by a colored woman but police court records of this city has chronicled the fact. The man in the case is D. Cobb, a prominent citizen of Oklahoma City, who formerly resided here, and the woman is Mrs. Arizona Brown, Carr, proprietress of a beauty parlor for white women here. The officers broke in on the couple Monday night and arrested them for lewd conduct. At police station the man put up cash bonds for himself and the woman and took the first train for Oklahoma City. Both bonds were forfeited Tuesday and a bench warrant was issued for the woman. The case was called at 4 o'clock this afternoon and Judge W. N. Moben appeared for Mrs. Carr and pleaded guilty to lewd conduct. The court assessed a fine of $25.00 and cost against the woman. Feeling among the colored people here is bitter against the woman and there is some talk of compelling her to leave town. Judge Moben, the woman's attorney, says the whole case is a frameup planned by officers who were employed by Mrs. Cobb, the white man's wife, who, he says, is trying to get a divorce from her husband. Had the races of the individuals been reversed no doubt the story would have been quite different.

Of St. Louis, Mo., for twenty years President of the Baptist State Convention and unanimously reelected for another year.

BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION. A Most Profitable and Interesting Session Being Held in This City.

The State Baptist Convention presided over by Dr. J. T. Caston of St. Louis is in session this week in the beautiful Second Baptist Church, Rev. S. W. Bacote Pastor. Many prominent ministers and laymen and ladies as well are in attendance from all sections of the State which indicates that it will be one of the greatest sessions in the history of the Convention. The formal opening exercises were held Tuesday night with Dr. Gideon W. Brown Grand Master of U. B. F. as Master of Ceremonies and after the usual form of opening, the following program was rendered: Welcome address—On behalf of the Church, Prof. Henry L. Cox and Rev. O. T. Redd. On behalf of the crusaders, Mrs. M. G. Brooks. On behalf of the auxiliaries, Mrs. Ella M. Berry. On behalf of the Press, Nelson C. Crews. On behalf of the Interdenominational Alliance, Rev. W. H. Thomas, D. D. On behalf of the B. Y. P. U., Mrs. Ellen Tolbert. On behalf of the Schools, Prof. J. R. E. Lee. On behalf of the city, Mr. Powell representing Mayor Cowgill. On behalf of the Baptists of Kansas City, Rev. S. W. Bacote, D. D. Response by Rev. E. M. Chohron, D. D. and Mrs. G. L. Prince of St. Louis. On Wednesday the official sessions of the Convention began, the men meeting in Allen Chapel and the women in the Second Baptist Church. At the afternoon session terms of co-operation were arranged between the Western Baptist and the Missouri Conventions; while at the women's sessions the report of officers and the election of officers were held. On Thursday, the President's annual address and doctrinal sermon by Rev. O. C. Maxwell of St. Louis were the features; while at the women's convention Dr. Geo. E. Stevens delivered an educational sermon. On Friday Educational exercises were held with a sermon by Rev. P. H. Thompson D. D. President of Western College, Macon. $10,000 was raised and pledged for educational purposes this year. Saturday will be devoted to sightseeing and on Sunday many of the pulpits of the city will be filled by distinguished ministers who are attending the Convention.

DR. JACKSON CASE UP TO U. S. GRAND JURY.

Leavenworth, Kas., Oct. 13.—Among cases to be submitted to a federal grand jury which met here Monday is that of Dr. B. E. Jackson, Negro physician of Kansas City, charged with violating the federal drug act. Nine witnesses, all said to be drug addicts, were brought here from Kansas City.

SOUTHWEST MISSOURI CONFERENCE.

Sunday was a big day at the Southwest Missouri Conference of the A. M. E. Church. Services beginning with the union Sunday School meeting, largely attended at 9:30 A. M. and the Ordination services following at 11:00 o'clock. The sermon at the request of Bishop Parks, being delivered by Dr. R. C. Ransom of New York and it is needless to say it was masterly effort. A number of Deacons and Elders were ordained at this service by the Bishop. At three o'clock General Prizes services were held and at four o'clock Memorial services were held for the late Dr. A. A. Gilbert, Dr. Jenter, Church historian and Bishop C. T. Shaffer. Bishop Parks delivered the principal eulogy in his own masterly style. At 6:45 Dr. Caldwell conducted a Monster Christian Endeavor meeting, after which the regular evening services began before an audience taxed the capacity of its historic edifice. More than a thousand people were turned away from this evening service at which time it was announced the appointments were to be read. Dr. F. F. Moore, the great Evangelist of the Southwest Conference preached a soulstirring sermon and at his conclusion a number joined the church, among whom was Hon. Fred W. Dabney. At the conclusion of the evening services Bishop Parks gave out the appointments which were as follows:

KANSAS CITY, MO.

(Reprinted by Request.)

You may sift it, you may drift it,
You may "do" the U. S. Through
But for cities with a future
You can't beat K. C. Mizoo;
Like a hustling growing youngster,
Swelling shirt and pants and shoe,
She is "ripping through her boundaries"
From Kaw River past the Blue.

With big industries a humming
And the rumble of more coming,
And her "Do You Know" gone drumming
Up big men and business too;
What a future, just to suit you,
List the cry that thrills you through
You can't beat it! Just repeat it,
"It's for mine," K. C. Mizoo.

Come up near it, catch the spirit
Breathed by half a million souls,
Come stone crazy, blooming blazy
Toward the three-fourth million goal;
Plenty country to expand in
Ample space to plant your "sand" in Glowing future to command in
Wealth and happiness untold.

With her horizon ever widening,
And true vision ever guiding
To that invisible abiding
Which her future has in store;
Sure her chest with pride is swelling
And her loyal men are yelling,
Filling air and mart and dwelling
By their ever charming lore.

"You can't beat it," just repeat it,
Hummed by all a-passing you,
Grain men, oil men, stock men, bankers,
Motors, packers, builders, too;
Men of every trade and color,
Join her ranks and boost his brother,
You can't beat it! All repeat it,
"It's for mine," K. C. Mizoo.

"LILLY WHITES" OF TEXAS COME BACK.

Fort Worth, Oct. 10.—A white policy for the Republican party of Texas was officially announced from headquarters of the Texas Republican Council by Chairman C. C. Littleton in a statement to the press following a meeting.

Pastor of the Baptist Church at Carrollton, Mo., moderator of the Mt. Zion Association, leader in every racial uplift movement in his community and one of the most scholarly men attending the convention.

NEGRO ELKS SCORE.

A most commendable resolution was adopted by the Negro Elks' lodge at their recent meeting by a unanimous vote to give a $50.00 scholarship to some one of the graduates of Lincoln High School this year, also on Thanksgiving Day to take all the poor and aged women of the race in automobiles to the various churches and serve them dinners; and on Christmas Day to have a gigantic Christmas tree for the poor and orphan children of the race in some large hall. The Sun commends the Elks both for their forethought, their liberality and their cardinal demonstration of true charity.

REV. JOHN GOINS

Secretary of the Baptist State Convention, Editor of the Western Messenger, Field Secretary for Missouri and one of the ablest men of the connection.
